Greeting & Introduction

Gospel

[Matthew 28:10-15]

John 20:19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, Peace be with you. After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you. When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained. But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, Peace be with you. Then he said to Thomas, Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe. Thomas answered him, My Lord and my God! Jesus said to him, Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Thine Be the Glory

Choir of King's College, Cambridge

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
 Endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won;
 Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
 Kept the folded grave clothes where thy body lay:

Refrain:

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
 Endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.

Lo, Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
 Lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
 Let the Church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
 For her Lord now liveth, death hath lost its sting! Refrain:

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of Life;
 Life is nought without thee: aid us in our strife,
 Make us more than conquerors, through thy deathless love;
 Bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above. Refrain:

Proclamation

Pastor: Christ is risen!

All: He is risen, so we shall arise!

Song of Songs 2: 10-13

My beloved speaks and says to me: Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away; for now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. The fig tree puts forth its figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give forth fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Thee We Adore

Great Hymns of Faith
Volume III
St. Olaf Choir

Thee we adore, O hidden Savior, thee,
Who in thy sacrament art pleased to be;
Both flesh and Spirit in thy presence fail,
Yet here thy presence we devoutly hail.

Fountain of goodness, Jesus, Lord and God:
 Cleanse us, unclean, with thy most cleansing blood;
 Increase our faith and love, that we may know
 The hope and peace which from thy presence flow.

O Christ, whom now beneath a veil we see,
 May what we thirst for soon our portion be,
 To gaze on thee unveiled, and see thy face,
 The vision of thy glory and thy grace. Amen.

Text: Thomas Aquinas, trans. James R. Woodford; Music: Plainchant Tune, arr. R. Johnson

Prayer

God, who makes us glad on this Feast Day of the Resurrection, mercifully grant that we who now celebrate these joyous holy days on earth may rise to eternal joys in heaven; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Announcements & Thank You

Beautiful Savior

Fair are the meadows, fairer the woodlands,
 Robed in flowers of blooming spring;
 Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer,
 He makes our sorrowing spirit sing.

Beautiful Savior! Lord of the nations!
 Son of God and Son of Man!
 Glory and honor, praise, adoration,
 Now and forevermore be Thine!
